

100 adults and children gathered to celebrate local Jewish pride and togetherness on Sunday, Aug. 18 at the St. Charles County Jewish Festival in Veterans Tribute Park. They enjoyed kosher BBQ, live Jewish music, a bounce house, a balloonist and Rosh Hashanah sand art for the kids. The festival was sponsored by Chabad of Greater St. Louis as a part of its 'Roving Rabbis' program. According to a 2014 demographic study sponsored by the Jewish Federation of St. Louis, an estimated 5,800 of the region's 61,000 Jews live in St. Charles County.
